WOMAN A MANIAC FROM VISITING PICTURE SHOWS

Changed in a Day From Frail, Gentle Wife Into Violent Insanity.

Keepers in the Passate County, N. J. fall at Paterson were startled yesterday by shricks coming from a padded cell occupied by Mrs. Albert Santanz, five feet two inches tall and of frail build. The woman had torn the pads from her cell and the clothes from her body. She was beating the door with her fists. Keeper Quinlan and three others entered the cell, hoping to quiet the woman. The second the door opened she hurled herself against the four. She seemed to have the strength of a dozen women and the keepers were thrown aside. Quinian caught her by the neck, but she broke hold and bit his left hand, Quinian was powerless to beat the woman of and she held to his hand, her teeth penetrating to the bone, until her jaws were

RAN SHOUTING THROUGH THE CORRIDORS-

Escaping from the cell, she dashed through the corridors, shouting. Uniti the keepers were unable to control her. Then they placed her in a straitjacket and carried her back to the wrecked

When the train pulled in the shricking woman was placed in the baggage car and with the four men guarding her was taken to the asylum. HAD MOVING PICTURE MANIA A MONTH.

Until 2 e'clock last Sunday morning Mrs. Santans was a kind, gentir woman. Saturday night she and her husband went to a moving picture show. For a month Mrs. Santanz has been developing a crase for moving pictures. There was hardly a day she did not go to one of
